Defendants-Appellees.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston
USDC No. 4:05-CV-2347

Before REAVLEY, BARKSDALE and STEWART, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

The judgment is affirmed. The magistrate judge explained to Mr. Ross that a student has no claim under Title VII and informed him that he would have to file a complaint stating facts justifying a claim under a federal statute. The magistrate judge again explained that a claim under the American Disabilities Act would have to state what a defendant did to him that would be a violation of the statute. Then Mr. Ross was given a final chance to explain his complaint or have his lawsuit dismissed. He failed to do this and his case was properly dismissed. His filing with this court fails to state a federal claim also. His help is not in a federal court.

AFFIRMED.

* Pursuant to 5TH CIR. R. 47.5, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.4.
