DOROTHY N. GRAYSON,

Plaintiff-Appellant

versus

JO ANNE BARNHART,
COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant-Appellee

-----
Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi (4:04-CV-176)
-----

Before SMITH, WIENER and OWEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Plaintiff-Appellant Dorothy N. Grayson ("Claimant") appeals the ruling of the district court, grounded in its adoption of the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, upholding the ruling of the Administrative Law Judge who denied Claimant's application for disability and disability insurance benefits and for Supplemental Security Income under the Social Security Act. We have reviewed the outstanding briefs of counsel for Claimant and for the Commissioner, as well as the record on appeal, including the cogent and exhaustive Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge that lies at the core of the district court's denial of Claimant's motion for summary judgment and grant of the Commissioner's. Even though, as noted by the Magistrate Judge, this case is a close one, in the end we are convinced that the Administrative Law Judge, the Magistrate Judge, and the district court committed no error that supports reversal, in whole or in part, on appeal. For the reasons thoroughly explicated by the Magistrate Judge and adopted by the district court, the rulings appealed from are, in all respects, AFFIRMED.
