Clerk

Judicial Council for the Fifth Circuit

Complaint Number: 05-23-90078

MEMORANDUM

Complainant, a pro se litigant, repeats allegations made and dismissed in a prior complaint against the subject United States District Judge, i.e., the judge “prematurely dismissed my lawsuit,” violated her rights to “due process and equal protection of law,” and “proceeded to collude with the government misconduct of the defendants.” Complainant further complains that by holding that the dismissal constituted a “strike” under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), the judge “violat[ed] my First Amendment right of free speech.”

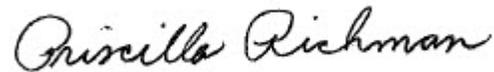

To the extent that the complaint relates directly to the merits of the judge’s decision to impose a “strike” for the purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), it is subject to dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). In other respects, the complaint is repetitious and is therefore subject to dismissal as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii).

Judicial misconduct proceedings are not a substitute for the normal appellate review process, nor may they be used to obtain reversal of a decision or a new trial.

This is complainant’s fourth complaint to be dismissed under 28 U.S.C. §§ 352(b)(1)(A)(ii) and (iii), and she repeats allegations made in a prior complaint regarding the same proceeding. This is an abuse of the complaint process. Complainant’s right to file complaints is hereby SUSPENDED pursuant to Rule 10(a), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. Complainant may show cause, through a petition for review submitted pursuant to Rule 18, why her right to file further complaints should not be so limited.

An order dismissing the complaint is entered simultaneously herewith.
