Re: Complaint of Misconduct against U.S. District Judge Frank Walter S. Smith, Jr. (W.D. Tex.) Redacted

To Whom It May Concern:

On March 7, 2014, I deposed Witness A a former deputy clerk in the Waco Division of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas. According to Witness A's testimony, it appears that Judge Walter S. Smith, Jr. engaged in abusive sexual contact, a felony, as defined by 18 U.S.C. §§2244 and 2246. As a result, it appears that Judge Smith further violated Canon 2(A) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges.

I have enclosed a transcript of I Witness A's testimony, as well as a transcript of the testimony of her ex-husband, Witness B. Witness's B testimony corroborates the testimony of Witness A and Witness A identified a number of other witnesses who can corroborate her testimony.

As of 2006, there is no limitations period for prosecuting a violation of §2244. Unfortunately, the incident occurred in 1998, when the limitations period for such an offense was five years. Nonetheless, Congress's power to impeach is not subject to any limitations period, therefore I request that this matter be investigated, with the results of any such investigation reported to Congress.

Two paragraphs redacted, unrelated to the complaint against Judge Smith*

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Ty Clevenger

Mr. Clevenger is also referred to as "complainant"

7	Court Reporter's Certificate	7	A It was in the morning. It was about 8:30, and I had
8		8	went down to the water fountain down the hall on the third
9		9	floor, which is where the clerk's office is and also the
10		10 11	judge's office and courtroom. And I went to rinse out my cup,
11		12	get some water. And about that time Judge Smith came up the stairs, entering the building, coming in for the day. And he
12		13	stopped and talked to me, "Hi, how are you?" And, really, I
13		14	had never had a conversation with him, per se. We never

15		16	Q Before that time?
16		17	A Right. I mean, I hardly ever saw him even though we
17 18		18	were on the same floor. But this morning he had this
19		19	particular morning he had a pretty strong smell I don't
20		20	know whether it was mouthwash or liquor, but it was pretty
21		21	strong on his breath. And he when he was talking to me.
22		22	He told me that he said, "Come see me sometime." I believe
23		23	that's the exact words he used. And I was like, "Okay." I
24		24	kind of thought it was strange. It was kind of a strange

15	been intoxicated? Or did you mention to anyone else that you	15	Q Well, did you say anything to him?
16	thought he might have been intoxicated?	16	A I said I said it's just stupid. I said,
17	A Yes, I did.	17	"Right now?" That's what I said. I don't I was like,
18	Q Who did you tell that you thought he might have been	18	"What? Right now? What?" like that was even the issue. And
19	intoxicated?	19	he said, "Yeah." He said And then he he pulled me to

4	A Yes.	4	here without making him angry?
5	Q Okay. So you went to this training session. And	5	Q Did he did he grab you with his hands?
6	then what happened after that?	6	A Yes.
7	A I came up to my desk, and immediately my phone rang.	7	Q What what did he do with his hands?
8	And he said, "Where have you been?"	8	A I mean, he he put his arms around me and, you

- weird things came out of my mouth, you know. And in
- 2 hindsight, you know, I wish I would have said things
- 3 differently, but I was like -- I -- I was just trying to keep
- 4 him from blowing up at me because I could tell he was very --
- 5 he was agitated because I had not come in there earlier that
- 6 morning. He was already agitated, and I could feel that, you
- 7
- 8 Q Did he have a reputation for having a temper, being
- 9 angry?
- 10 A Uh-huh.
- 11 Q Is that a "yes," he did?
- 12 Yes. A
- 13 Q Okay. Did he have a reputation for drinking?
- 14 A Yes. I found -- I -- Yes.
- 15 Q Okay. And so after that last conversation you just
- 16 described, did he try to grab you again, or did he physically
- 17 touch you after that?
- 18 A He just took my hand, and he was like, you know,
- 19 "Just come stay with me in here for a while," and I was just
- 20 like, you know, "I -- I've got to get back to my desk. I've
- 21 got to -- " I don't really remember too much of what I said.
- 22 I was just trying to get out of there and --
- 23 Q Okay. You want to take a break?
- 24 A No.

25 Q So where did you go? Did you talk to anybody right her, I guess you went back to your office?

- A Yes. And he called me again in the afternoon.
- Q You said "he." You mean Judge Smith?
- A Judge Smith. And asked me, "Take off -- " he said,
- 5 "Take off a couple of days. Take off a couple of days of
- 6 work. I want to take you somewhere." And I said, "Well, I
- 7 don't really have that many days, you know, available." I
- 8 said I'd been sick, and so I'd had to take my sick leave.
- 9 And, plus, I don't care how many days I had available, I 10
 - wasn't going to tell him --

Q Sure.

A -- "Oh, sure, let me just block off one of my weeks for you," you know. But he was like, "I want to .. just -just take off a few days. I'll take care of it," you know, "I'll make sure that, you know, you can have the time off and 16 you'll get paid and everything." And I don't remember how the 17 conversation ended.

Q Did you stay the rest of the day or go home?

A I stayed the rest of the day. And that evening I just -- It -- it happened on a Thursday. I know that for sure because on Fridays my schedule was to come in at one o'clock. And so Friday before I came in I called my boss, Employee C , there at the district clerk's office and said -- I told him what happened. And I said, "Please don't leave me alone with him." I said, you know, "I'm afraid," you

Page 11

- after you left his office?
- 2 A When I went out of the office, he -- he told me to
- 3 shut the door behind me and that -- I don't really even know
- how I got him to allow me to get out of the office. I don't 4
- remember exactly what I said. But Employee was there, and I 5
- just told her "Hi." I mean, I felt like I was going to pass 6
- 7 out. I knew she could tell something was wrong, but I didn't
- 8 say anything, you know. And I went back to my desk. And my
- 9 coworker, Employee B came by my desk. And I was just
- 10 sitting there. I was just sitting in my chair, just -- 1
- 11 don't know. I couldn't even -- I just felt numb. And she
- 12 said, "What is wrong with you? You look like you've seen a
- 13 ghost." She said, "You're pale. You're -- What is wrong?"
- 14 And so she said, "Meet me down at the bathroom." We had a
- 15 particular bathroom on the third floor that was women only and
- 16 it was locked and only we had a key to it. And so I went --
- 17 she went down there, and then I came down there a little later
- 18 and told her what happened.
- 19 Q So you told about what Judge Smith had done?
- 20 A Uh-huh.
- 21 Q Did -- what -- did she advise you or suggest that
- 22 you do anything?
- 23 A She was just in shock, and I don't remember what she
- 24 said.
- 25 Q Sure, sure. So after that, after you spoke with

Page 13

- 1 know, "He's propositioned me. He's very adamant about it, and
 - he's not even thinking no is an option, or he doesn't even
- 3 think that I just don't want him," you know, how could I -- I 4
- mean, that just wasn't even a -- it's like how could I not be so indebted to him for him making that offer is the way I 5
- 6 felt, you know. And so my boss was like -- you know, he got
- 7 real quiet, and he was like, "Okay." Well, then I came in at
- 8 one o'clock. And when I walked in, there was a dozen yellow
- 9
- roses on my desk, a big ol' thing. And I just -- I felt like
- 10 I was going to faint. And my boss was sitting up front. We
- 11 had a metal table there. And he was just opening the mail and
- 12 distributing it. And I just looked at him, and he looked at
- 13 me because he knew exactly what it was,
 - O You mean Employee C?
- 15 Employee C And right after -- it was -- I
- 16 guess he had -- the judge had watched me come in the building,
- 17 and he paged my desk, and he said, "Where have you been? I've 18
- been waiting on you to get here all day. Where have you 19 been?" And I told him, "I don't come in till one o'clock,"
- 20 you know, which was a pretty -- I think I had started doing
- 21 that, you know, within the last six months or so, so it was
- 22 fairly new for me, my schedule. And I said, "No, you should
- 23 not have sent these. You should not have sent these." He's
- 24 like, "Well, sent what?" And I'm like, "You know what I'm
- 25 talking about. You should not have sent these. It's just --

4	A (Nodding head)	4
5	Q "Yes"?	5	* Redacted - unrelated to the
6	A Yes.	6
7	Q Okay. Did Employee F quote the judge as saying	7	complaint against Judge Smith ****
8	anything else?	8
9	A Huh-uh. He just, you know, made it clear that he,	9
10	you know, watched me every day coming to work, unbeknownst to	10
11	nie.	11
12	Q That that judge Smith watched you coming to work	12
13	every day?	13
14	A (Nodding head)	15
15 16	Q Okay. A His office faced out. I don't know that he did,	16
17	but I mean, every day, but he watched me. You know,	17
18	there's cameras in the marshals' office. There's his	18
19	office faced out over the parking lot where I parked, where	19	Q Did you volunteer to testify today, or were you
20	everybody parked and came in and But obviously he knew	20	subpoenaed?

1		1	A. Not originally, no.
2		2	Q So you've not have have you been peddling this
3		3	story around, or did somebody have to urge you to talk?
4		4	A No. I've been trying to put it behind me. I
5		5	really I was very defensive when I received the subpoena,
6		6	and I didn't come the first time I was subpoensed because I
7		7	didn't want all this. I just didn't want to deal with it
8	* Redacted - unrelated to the	8	again. I didn't want to talk about it. I didn't want to

10	compania against vasge since	10	wanted it gone.
11		11	Q I want to ask you about a letter that you wrote to
12		12	Judge Smith. Did you did you write a letter while you were
13		13	on leave to Judge Smith?
14		14	A Yes. O And can you describe generally what the letter said?
15		15	A It basically said that I had decided that I was
16		16 17	going to return to the clerk's office and resume my position
17 18		18	and that I want him to stay away from me and not to bother me
19		19	not to talk to me, not to call me, to stay away from me, and,
20		20	you know, that what he did was wrong. It caused me a lot of

3	Q All right. But you ended up resigning anyway	3	Q He introduced you to
4	ofterwards?	4	A Yes. I'm not exactly sure how it kind of all came
5	A I did. I went I went back, and I caught a lot of	5	together other than the fact that Manager A offered to take
6	flack from other people in the office because they were like,	6	me to Houston to talk to an attorney to find out if there was
7	"Oh, Witness can quit and come back whenever she wants to," you	7	anything that could be done about the situation

10	just leave and come back whenever I wanted to. And also the	10	know, Employees G, H were working in the courthouse at the
11	fact that, you know, I was on the same floor as the judge's	11	time, so
12	office, and anytime that I you know, I had a fear of	12	Q Gotcha. So Manager A is the former city manager
13	walking out into the hall and running running into him.	13	of Waco?
14	Q Are you aware of any other incidents in which Judge	14	Λ City mayor, yeah
15	Smith has allegedly harassed or assaulted women who work in	15	Q Okay. You mentioned earlier
16	the courthouse?	16	A I believe.
17	A I had I don't know of anything specific.	17	Q Employee F the probation supervisor. What was
18	Q Have you heard anything secondhand, thirdhand?	18	his first name?
19	A I know that he did I I was told he did have a	19	A Employee F
