

Information regarding oral argument in Hornbeck Offshore vs. Salazar, No. 10-30585

1. The John Minor Wisdom Building will be closed to the public after the morning oral argument sessions on Thursday, July 8, 2010. The building will reopen at 2:00 PM.
2. Seating space in the courtroom is limited. Audio of the argument will be fed into the other courtrooms, as needed. The digital recording of the argument will be available online within one hour of the argument concluding.
3. Except for court staff, pooled media reporters and others with business before the court who may be granted reserved spaces, persons wishing to attend the argument will be issued numbers on a first come basis, beginning at 1:30 PM on July 8, 2010.
4. Numbers will be issued outside the courthouse on Camp Street. In the event of inclement weather, numbers will be issued in the Fifth Circuit Library.
5. Spectators will not be permitted to bring into the courthouse cameras, cell phones or other devices which could be used to transmit video or audio signals, or record the proceedings. Please leave these devices in your offices, cars, hotels, etc. If you attempt to enter with one of these devices, you may be denied entry to the courthouse.