Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas
(A-00-CV-295)

---

July 23, 2001

Before HIGGINBOTHAM, WIENER, and BARKSDALE, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Appellant asks us to reverse the district court's finding that a debt incurred through fraudulent pretenses was not dischargeable. We are unable to reach the merits of Appellant's position, however, as the district court's order was not "final" for purposes of 28

*Pursuant to 5TH CIR. R. 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.4.

U.S.C. § 158(d). The district court remanded to the bankruptcy court to determine the amount owed on the promissory note and any attorney's fees to be awarded. As the bankruptcy court will be required to conduct "significant further proceedings" on remand, we have no jurisdiction to hear this appeal.<sup>1</sup> Nor does the collateral order doctrine provide us with jurisdiction, as the district court's judgment is not insulated from appeal following remand.<sup>2</sup> We therefore DISMISS this appeal for lack of jurisdiction.

DISMISSED.
