June 11, 1998

Before DUHÉ, DeMOSS, and DENNIS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Ronald Regan Harrison, Texas prisoner # 571382, appeals the district court's grant of summary judgment in favor of Dr. David Edgeworth and the dismissal of his claims as frivolous against the other defendants. Harrison argues that Dr. Edgeworth acted with deliberate indifference to Harrison's serious medical needs and that defendants David Williams and Mae Pasquet should be held responsible respectively for their supervision of the Tarrant County Jail's medical department and of those individuals who subcontract with the Tarrant County Jail to handle medical problems.

Our review of the record reveals that there is no genuine issue of material fact demonstrating that Dr. Edgeworth knew of a substantial risk of serious medical harm and failed to take reasonable measures to abate it. See Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 322 (1986); see also Hare v. City of Corinth, Miss., 74 F.3d 633, 648-49 (5th Cir. 1996)(en banc). Furthermore, the district court did not abuse its discretion in dismissing Harrison's claims against Pasquet and Williams, who were sued in their supervisory roles. See Siglar v. Hightower, 112 F.3d 191, 193 (5th Cir. 1997); see also Thompkins v. Belt, 828 F.2d 298, 303-04 (5th Cir. 1987).
