Appeals from the United States District Court
For the Southern District of Mississippi, Jackson
(4:01-CV-133)

Before BARKSDALE, DeMOSS, and BENAVIDES, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

First Family Financial Services Inc. (hereinafter "First Family") filed these three actions in federal court in June, 2001, to compel Fred Sanders, Joan Calhoun and Hal Lee Jenkins (collectively "the Borrowers") to arbitrate claims which Borrowers had raised in the lawsuit brought by them against First Family in the Circuit Court of Noxubee County, Mississippi. The Borrowers filed motions to dismiss as well as to motions to stay pending discovery which the district court denied. First Family moved to compel arbitration in all three cases in February, 2002. In September, 2002, the district court entered memorandum opinions and orders directing the Borrowers to submit their state court claims to arbitration and staying their state court action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2283. The Borrowers timely filed notices of appeal and this Court consolidated the three appeals.

and relevant portions of the record itself. For the reasons stated by the district court in each of the three memorandum opinions and orders entered under date of September 6, 2002, we affirm the decision of the district court to compel arbitration in these cases. AFFIRMED
