UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

versus

ARMANDO RAMIREZ-TRUJILLO,

Defendant-Appellant.

-----
Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
USDC No. 5:04-CR-1906-ALL
-----

Before GARZA, DENNIS, and PRADO, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Armando Ramirez-Trujillo (Ramirez) pleaded guilty to illegal reentry after deportation and was sentenced to 71 months of imprisonment, three years of supervised release, and a $100 special assessment.

Ramirez argues for the first time on appeal that the district court erred in ordering him to cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample as a condition of supervised release. This claim is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction because it is not ripe for review. See United States v. Riascos-Cuenu, 428 F.3d 1100, 1101-02 (5th Cir. 2005), petition for cert. filed (Jan. 9, 2006) (No. 05-8662).

Ramirez's constitutional challenge to 8 U.S.C. § 1326(b) is foreclosed by Almendarez-Torres v. United States, 523 U.S. 224, 235 (1998). Although Ramirez contends that Almendarez-Torres was incorrectly decided and that a majority of the Supreme Court would overrule Almendarez-Torres in light of Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000), we have repeatedly rejected such arguments on the basis that Almendarez-Torres remains binding. See United States v. Garza-Lopez, 410 F.3d 268, 276 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 126 S. Ct. 298 (2005). Ramirez properly concedes that his argument is foreclosed in light of Almendarez-Torres and circuit precedent, but he raises it here to preserve it for further review.
