CAROLINE MORGAN,

Plaintiff - Appellant

v.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION,

Defendant - Appellee

Appeals from the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas
USDC No. 1:15-CV-1255

Before REAVLEY, OWEN, and ELROD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

This court has read the entire record of this case to look for any legal claims Appellant has appealed, but none is found. Appellant does complain about being denied the ability to proceed in forma pauperis but she was originally denied this for cause. Her present means were not then known. Although she does not mention the mandamus sought against the FBI, that

* Pursuant to 5TH CIR. R. 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.4.

bears on her complaint that the FBI has not responded correctly to her request for information about her in files of the FBI. A final judgment has been entered denying that claim.

The court must dismiss this appeal.

DISMISSED.
