UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff—Appellee,

versus

JOSE CASTANEDA-ACEVEDO,

Defendant—Appellant.

---

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas
USDC No. 4:21-CR-50-1

---

Before SOUTHWICK, OLDHAM, and WILSON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Jose Castaneda-Acevedo appeals his sentence of 16 months in prison and three years of supervised release imposed after he pled guilty to illegal reentry. His sole claim challenges a condition of supervised release providing that if his probation officer determines that he poses a risk to another person, the officer may require him to notify that person of the risk. Castaneda-Acevedo argues that the district court erred in imposing this condition because it constitutes an impermissible delegation of judicial authority.

The sole issue in this appeal is now foreclosed. We recently rejected the same argument and held that the district court did not err, plainly or otherwise, by imposing the same risk-notification condition. United States v. Mejia-Banegas, 32 F.4th 450, 452 (5th Cir. 2022).
