Appeals from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
CA 92 1836 "K" (6)

October 7, 1993

Before HIGGINBOTHAM, DAVIS, and SMITH, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Having reviewed the briefs of the parties and the applicable portions of the record, and having heard the argument of counsel, we are convinced that none of the issues raised in these two appeals has arguable merit. This matter was properly retained in district court following removal. The complaint was properly dismissed. The district court did not err in levying sanctions. Attorneys' fees were awarded in a justifiable amount.

The judgments are AFFIRMED.

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
