Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

JAMES C. LYNAUGH, Director,
Texas Dept. of Criminal Justice, ET AL.,

Defendants-Appellees.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas
USDC No. CA6-91-528
- - - - -
(January 21, 1993)

Before GARWOOD, SMITH, and EMILIO M. GARZA, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

William G. Hinton has presented to this Court no facts or details concerning his claims of racism, denial of due process, and premature dismissal of his complaint. This Court will not consider arguments which are not briefed on appeal. Brinkmann v. Dallas County Deputy Sheriff Abner, 813 F.2d 744, 748 (5th Cir. 1987); see Fed. R. App. P. 28(a)(5). The district court properly dismissed the suit as frivolous because Hinton presented no facts to support his conclusional allegations. Whittington v. Lynaugh,

* Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

(1988).

AFFIRMED.
