Appeal from the United States District Court
For the Western District of Texas

---

(SA 90 CA 0111)

( May 14, 1993 )

Before HIGGINBOTHAM, SMITH, and DeMOSS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

This Title VII case was tried on its merits by consent of the parties before the magistrate judge who made extensive findings of fact and conclusions of law. We have carefully reviewed the briefs, the record excerpts, and pertinent parts of the record; and *Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

we have concluded that the findings of fact made by the magistrate judge are not clearly erroneous, and that the judgment entered in the district court that the appellant take nothing from her suit, should be affirmed.

Accordingly, we AFFIRM the judgment of the district court.
