Appeals from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
(CA H 87 2403)

(December 2, 1993)

Before VAN GRAAFEILAND,* SMITH, and WIENER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

Having reviewed the briefs, record, and arguments of counsel, we conclude that the district court did not err in granting summary judgment on all claims. The defendants violated no constitutional right, and no antitrust violation has been shown. There are no issues of material fact. There is no error in the award of costs. Accordingly, the judgment and order appealed from are AFFIRMED.

* Circuit Judge of the Second Circuit, sitting by designation.

 Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
