

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS for the Fifth Circuit

No. 93-2292

VICTOR SEALES,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

VERSUS

CITY OF HOUSTON,

Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas

(June 9, 1994)

Before WISDOM, DAVIS and DUHÉ, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:¹

The only significant issue presented in this appeal is whether plaintiff, Victor Seales, was afforded due process in connection with his discharge by his employer, the City of Houston. Our review of the record leads us to conclude that the district court properly concluded that Mr. Seales received all the process that was due under the governing Supreme Court decision of Cleveland Board of Education v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532, 105 S.Ct. 1487, 84 L.Ed.2d 494 (1985).

¹ Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

We therefore affirm the judgment of the district court.

AFFIRMED.
