Appeals from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
CA-H-87-1820

---

(November 3, 1994)

Before JONES and STEWART, Circuit Judges, and DUPLANTIER*, District Judge.

EDITH H. JONES, Circuit Judge:**

This court has carefully considered the briefs and oral arguments of counsel and, having done so, concludes that there is no reversible error of law or fact in the trial proceedings. Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is AFFIRMED. See Fifth Circuit Local Rule 47.6.

Costs on appeal are to be taxed against appellants.

ISSUED AS MANDATE

* District Judge of the Eastern District of Louisiana, sitting by designation.

** Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
