

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 93-3611
(Summary Calendar)

IN THE MATTER OF: FRANK J. D'AMICO,

Debtor.

LAWRENCE J. SMITH,

Appellant,

versus

FRANK J. D'AMICO, JR.,

Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
(No. 93-1429-H)

(March 9, 1994)

Before JOLLY, WIENER, and EMILIO M. GARZA, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

In this bankruptcy case, Creditor-Appellant Lawrence J. Smith appeals the decision of the district court affirming a bankruptcy

*Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

court order that denied Smith's motion to file a proof of claim after the deadline because Smith did not demonstrate excusable neglect. We have carefully considered the facts and legal arguments advanced by counsel in their briefs to this court and have reviewed the record. We are satisfied that the district court's opinion more than adequately addressed and disposed of the issue. We can add nothing to the correct and comprehensive analysis of this case contained in the district court's opinion. Instead of writing separately, then, we adopt the reasoning, findings, and conclusions expressed therein, incorporate it by reference, and annex a copy hereto.

AFFIRMED.
