

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 93-4276

JOHN DOE,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

CELTIC LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas

(9:92 CV 153)

(December 7, 1993)

Before POLITZ, Chief Judge, GARWOOD and DUHÉ, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

This matter is before the court on plaintiff-appellant's appeal of the court's order denying him anonymity in the further disposition of these proceedings. Based on the limited and special circumstances of this plaintiff in the factual setting of this particular case we conclude that anonymity is warranted and appropriate. The order of the district court is REVERSED and the motion for the protective order is GRANTED.

*Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
