

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 93-7125
(Summary Calendar)

AMOCO OIL CO.,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

PHILIPPE MARTIN, Philippe
Martin & Associes and Colonia,

Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
(CA G-92-296)

(July 12, 1993)

BEFORE KING, DAVIS, and WIENER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Plaintiff-Appellant Amoco Oil Company appeals the district court's dismissal on grounds of forum non conveniens. Having considered the district court's thorough opinion, we conclude that the court properly applied the analytical framework prescribed for determining the validity of a motion to dismiss on grounds of forum non conveniens. Reviewing the district court's conclusion under *Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

the deferential abuse of discretion standard, we find no reversible error.

For the foregoing reasons, the opinion of the district court is
