EXXON PIPELINE CO.,
a Delaware Corporation,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

CHARLIE ADAMS and TINA ANN ADAMS,

Defendants-Appellees.

---

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi
(3:90-CV-579(BC))

---

(February 21, 1994)

Before POLITZ, Chief Judge, GARWOOD and BARKSDALE, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Exxon Pipeline Company appeals a judgment rejecting in part its request for an injunction against the defendants-owners of certain property over which Exxon has easement rights for crude oil *Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

pipelines. Perceiving neither clearly erroneous findings of fact nor error of law or abuse of discretion, on the facts as found and the analysis made by the district court in its oral ruling from the bench on July 15, 1993, the judgment appealed is, in all respects, AFFIRMED.
