Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
(3:93-CV-28-G)

(March 31, 1995)

Before SMITH, EMILIO M. GARZA, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

We affirm, essentially for the reasons stated in the district court's memorandum order entered on August 10, 1994. There is simply no summary judgment evidence of discriminatory intent. The

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

evidence points solely to termination because of the bad checks that were written.

AFFIRMED.
