

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

---

No. 94-20157

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

versus

JOSE M. RAMIRES,

Defendant-Appellant.

---

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
(CR-H-93-235-3)

---

(February 10, 1995)

Before REYNALDO G. GARZA, GARWOOD and DAVIS, Circuit Judges.*

PER CURIAM:

Having considered the arguments of counsel, the briefs, and relevant portions of the record, this Court is unable to conclude that the prosecutor's closing argument, complained of for the first time on appeal, constitutes plain error meriting reversal of the conviction. See United States v. Carter, 953 F.2d 1449 (5th Cir.),

---

* Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

cert. denied, 112 S.Ct. 2980 (1992). By so holding, however, we do not bless the arguments in question, and we trust they will not be repeated. The judgment of the district court is

AFFIRMED.
