

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 94-20371
Summary Calendar

JULES J. WALTER,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

VERSUS

BROWN AND ROOT,

Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas

(February 8, 1995)

Before SMITH, EMILIO M. GARZA, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

The plaintiff appeals a summary judgment denying his title VII claim of employment discrimination. His brief is not in a form that properly raises issues that we can effectively review on appeal. The district court entered a comprehensive opinion explaining its reasons. We AFFIRM, essentially for the reasons given by the district court.

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
