Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
USDC No. H-94-CR-123-1
- - - - -

November 16, 1995

Before HIGGINBOTHAM, DUHÉ, and EMILIO M. GARZA, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:¹

Appellant appeals from the district court's denial of his "motion to suppress evidence illegally seized from an improper arrest and search of the defendant's person and property." He argues that the officers unlawfully seized the keys from his pocket, that the officers' warrantless entry into his apartment was not justified by exigent circumstances, and that the evidence

¹ Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

subsequently seized from the apartment pursuant to a search warrant was unlawful and should be suppressed. We have reviewed the record and the district court's opinion and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. United States v. Ledesma, No. H-94-CR-123-1 (S.D. Tex. July 7, 1994).

AFFIRMED.
