

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 94-30534

JOHN POUILLARD,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

WILLIAM N. KING,

Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
(94-CV-2337)

(April 10, 1995)

Before WOOD,* JOLLY, and DeMOSS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

This panel, having fully reviewed the matter, finds that the appellant fails completely to make any showing of denial of constitutional rights. Poullard alleges violations of due process and equal protection, neither of which is demonstrated by the facts in this case. The judgment of the district court is therefore

A F F I R M E D.

Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
