Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana
(6:91-CV-244)

(June 30, 1994)

Before GARWOOD, SMITH, and DeMOSS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Attorney Charles Calahan appeals sanctions, in the form of disbarment from the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana, imposed on him under FED. R. CIV. P. 11.

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

We review rule 11 sanctions for abuse of discretion. The district court's reasons are ably set forth in its Memorandum Ruling of September 24, 1993, only a portion of which the appellant has bothered to include in the record excerpts. We find no abuse of discretion in the imposition of sanctions. The order appealed from is AFFIRMED.
