(June 7, 1995)

Before KING, WIENER, and REAVLEY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

No. 94-50611

The judgment of the district court entered July 27, 1994, affirming the order and judgment of the bankruptcy court entered December 31, 1992, is in all respects AFFIRMED. As both the district and bankruptcy courts found, the record before the bankruptcy court shows (clearly, in our view) actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors. Further, as both the district and bankruptcy courts found, the statutes of limitations under §§ 546 and 549(d) of the Bankruptcy Code were tolled by fraudulent concealment, and the proceeding before the bankruptcy court was, therefore, timely.
