E. L. GREEN,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

VERSUS

WAL-MART STORES, INC.,

Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi

---

(September 8, 1994)

Before DAVIS, JONES and DUHÉ, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:<sup>1</sup>

Mr. Green appeals the take-nothing judgment entered by the district court in his slip-and-fall case against Wal-Mart following a bench trial. The district court found that the plaintiff had not carried his burden of establishing that his fall was caused through Wal-Mart's negligence or that his medical problems were causally related to that fall. Our review of the record leads us to <sup>1</sup>Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

conclude that the district court's findings are supported by substantial evidence and are not clearly erroneous. This judgment is therefore
