Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

ALBERT WALKER, Sheriff of Noxubee
County, MS, ET AL.,

Defendants-Appellees.

Appeal from the United States District Court
For the Southern District of Mississippi
(93 CV 84)

August 17, 1995

Before HIGGINBOTHAM, DUHE, and EMILIO M. GARZA, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Bryant V. Brewer appeals the district court's dismissal of his pro se, in forma pauperis action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (1988) against Albert Walker, the Sheriff of Noxubee County, Deputy Sheriffs Earnest Eichelberger and Robert Grissom, and members of the Board of Supervisors of Noxubee County (collectively, the

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

"County officials"). After a bench trial,¹ the district court dismissed Brewer's suit with prejudice.

Brewer argues that the district court erred in entering judgment for the County officials. We have reviewed the records and the briefs, and we find no merit in Brewer's contentions. Accordingly, for the reasons stated in the district court's concise and well-written opinion, we AFFIRM the judgment of the district court.
