Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
USDC No. 94-CV-2576
- - - - -

December 20, 1995

Before DAVIS, STEWART, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Appellant appeals from the district court's order denying his petition for a writ of habeas corpus. He argues that his confession should have been suppressed and that, if not, the recording of the entire confession should have been played for the jury. We have reviewed the record and the district court's opinion, which adopted the magistrate judge's report, and find no

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. Vinet v. Whitley, No. 94-2576 (E.D. La. Apr. 18, 1995).

AFFIRMED.
