UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

versus

FRANCISCO MEDINA SANCHEZ, Fugitive,

Defendant-Appellant.

December 19, 1995

Before DAVIS, STEWART, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Francisco Medina Sanchez appeals the sufficiency of the evidence to support his conviction for making a false statement in connection with the purchase of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(a)(6). Sanchez argues the evidence does not show that his statement was knowing. We have reviewed the record and find the evidence sufficient to support the jury's determination of guilt. United States v. Jaramillo, 42 F.3d 920, 923 (5th

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
