Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas
USDC No. 6:92-CV-334

February 8, 1996
Before KING, SMITH, and BENAVIDES, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Texas prisoner Odan Ben Bowman appeals the dismissal of his civil rights action against several prison employees. Bowman contends that the district court erred by denying his proposed witness lists; holding him to the standards applicable to attorneys; dismissing his claims against defendants Jackson, Arnold and Hall for failing to serve them; denying his motion for appointment of counsel; dismissing his claims surrounding the use of force by defendant Fortner, the medical care he received following that use of force, and his claims that guards forced him to shave and that defendant Green punished him despite a clipper-shave pass Bowman believed permitted him to avoid shaving; and by imposing a $60 partial filing fee on him.

We have reviewed the record and the briefs of the parties and we find no reversible error. We therefore affirm for essentially the reasons given by the district court.

AFFIRMED.
