December 20, 1995

Before DAVIS, STEWART, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

On motion for leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis (IFP), David C. Little Hawk makes no argument that challenges the

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

district court's enforcement of a previously-imposed sanction barring him from filing suits without judicial permission. He has identified no nonfrivolous issues for appeal. IFP is denied, and the appeal is dismissed as frivolous. See Howard v. King, 707 F.2d 215, 219-20 (5th Cir. 1983); 5th Cir. R. 42.2.

Because the instant appeal is frivolous and because it stems from Little Hawk's violation of a district court sanction, we impose a monetary sanction. Accordingly, Little Hawk shall pay to the clerk of this court the amount of $100. Until he pays that amount in full, Little Hawk shall be barred from filing any civil appeal or other initial pleading in this court.

IFP DENIED. APPEAL DISMISSED. SANCTION IMPOSED.
