December 19, 1995

Before DAVIS, STEWART, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Charles Jackson appeals from the dismissal as frivolous of his in forma pauperis (IFP) civil rights complaint wherein he

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

alleged that he was denied access to the courts. We have reviewed the record and the magistrate judge's opinion and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons given by the magistrate judge.

AFFIRMED.
