ALFRED L. BUSH,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

RICE FOOD MARKETS, INC.,

Defendant-Appellee.

---

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas

---

September 18, 1996

Before GARWOOD, JOLLY and DENNIS, Circuit Judges.*

PER CURIAM:

Plaintiff-appellant Alfred L. Bush (Bush) appeals the district court's grant of summary judgment in favor of his former employer, defendant-appellee Rice Food Markets, Inc. (Rice), dismissing Bush's Title VII claim of racially motivated discharge. Bush does not complain of the dismissal of his claim of intentional infliction of emotional distress. After review of the briefs and record, we conclude that the district court correctly granted summary judgment for Rice. All of Bush's contentions on appeal are adequately analyzed and refuted in the district court's well-considered and thorough opinion.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, the judgment of the district court is

AFFIRMED.
