Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

SHIRLEY S. CHATER, COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi
(4:95CVLN)

December 20, 1996

Before SMITH, DUHÉ and BARKSDALE, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:¹

Norris Coxwell appeals the district court's affirmance of the Commissioner's decision denying him social security disability and supplemental income benefits beyond the closed period ending June 17, 1991.

He argues that the record does not support the determination by the administrative law judge (ALJ) of medical improvement beginning June 18, 1991, and that because no new medical evidence was added to the record after remand from the Appeals Council, Coxwell's disability continued. From our review of the record and the appellate arguments, we conclude that there was substantial evidence to support the ALJ's determination. See Anthony v. Sullivan, 954 F.2d 289, 292 (5th Cir. 1992).

Coxwell also argues that the ALJ failed to consider, in accordance with Social Security Ruling 95-5p, Coxwell's subjective complaints of pain. In light of the ALJ's incorporation into the decision after remand the summary of evidence and evaluation from the initial ALJ decision, we detect no error in the ALJ's evaluation of the complaints of pain. See Anthony, 954 F.2d at 292.

AFFIRMED.
