Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
USDC No. G-93-CV-12

---

July 27, 1998

Before JOLLY, BENAVIDES, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Kenneth G. Thompson, Jr., Texas state prisoner #428236, appeals from the district court's dismissal of his civil rights suit as frivolous pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). He argues that the defendants deprived him of his personal property, that the defendants were deliberately indifferent to his serious medical needs, that he was subjected to unreasonable housing and job assignments in retaliation for his legal activities, that he was denied access to the prison law library, that he was improperly excluded from a substance abuse program, and that the district court abused its discretion by refusing to exercise its supplemental jurisdiction over his state law claims. We have reviewed the record and find no reversible error. Accordingly, the judgment is AFFIRMED for essentially the reasons stated by the district court.
