ticket, that the City of Grey Forest authorized such stops, and that Defendant Rodgers violated his right to due process in connection with the municipal court proceedings of his case.

Garrison challenges a number of procedural rulings by the district court and argues that the dismissal of his complaint was in error. We have reviewed the record and the briefs of the parties and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we AFFIRM for the reasons stated by the district court. See Garrison v. City of Grey Forest, et al., No. SA-97-CA-1272 (W.D. Tex., April 16, 1998). Garrison's motion for leave to file his reply brief is DENIED. His motion for a jury trial also is DENIED.
