BELL COUNTY, TEXAS,

Defendant—Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas
USDC No. 6:19-CV-626

foreclosure documents, and a bill of lading valuing those foreclosure documents at $1,251,415.19, the amount he demanded from the County. The district court concluded that Watson had “filed suit in federal court because [Bell County] did not allow him to foreclose on a traffic ticket and then kept the submitted paperwork” and granted the County’s motion to dismiss. Watson now appeals and moves for summary reversal.

Upon review of the briefs and the record, we conclude that Watson’s arguments are frivolous and entirely without merit, and we therefore deny his motion for summary reversal and dismiss the appeal. See 5TH CIR. R. 32.2; Crain v. Comm’r, 737 F.2d 1417, 1417-18 (5th Cir. 1984). Watson is warned that any future frivolous, repetitive, or otherwise abusive filings may result in the imposition of sanctions, including dismissal, monetary sanctions, and limits on his ability to file pleadings in this court and any court subject to this court’s jurisdiction. Watson is further warned that he should review any pending appeals and actions and move to dismiss any that are frivolous.

DISMISSED AS FRIVOLOUS; MOTION DENIED;
SANCTION WARNING ISSUED.
