

United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit

ORDER
General Docket No. 2024-5

The court published proposed amendments to 5TH CIR. R. 27.3 for public comment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2071. Having received no comments, the court hereby adopts the following amendment to the FIFTH CIRCUIT RULES (changes are in red):

5TH CIR. R. 27.3:

27.3. Emergency Motions and Urgent Filings Requiring Action by a Date Certain in Cases Other Than Capital Cases.

27.3.2 Urgent Filings Requiring Action by a Date Certain. If a filing does not meet the criteria for an emergency under this rule but a party certifies that court action is necessary by a date certain, the filer must notify the clerk of court by telephone no later than 2:00 p.m. on the day of the filing of the intent to file and the date by which action is required. In addition to following all rules regarding the format of the filing, the filed pleading must clearly state the date for action and provide a justification for why such action is needed.

The amended rule is effective October 31, 2024.

Dated this 31st day of October 2024.
