ELECTRONIC NOTICING AND FILING OPTIONS AVAILABLE TO PRO SE PARTIES

Pro Se parties may submit a request to receive email notice of documents filed electronically, or if authorized by the court, you may log in to CM/ECF and file documents directly in your case.

A valid email account is required in order to be considered for electronic noticing. You will receive electronic notices of filings in your appeal, including correspondence and orders issued by the court. Please review the options listed below. This service is not available for any pro se serving in confinement.

OPTION #1 - RECEIVE COPIES OF FILINGS, COURT NOTICES, AND COURT ORDERS BY EMAIL. THIS OPTION DOES NOT INCLUDE FILING PRIVILEGES.

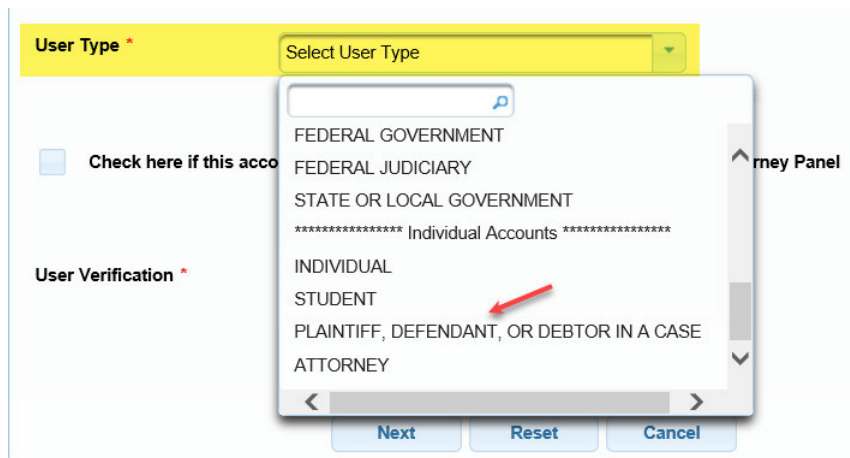

If you want to receive notices by email, you must register for a PACER account. If you already have a PACER account, skip to section B.

A. If you do not already have a PACER account.

1. Register for a PACER account at: <https://pacer.psc.uscourts.gov/pscof/registration.jsf?filerType=N>.

Provide all required information.

When prompted for a User Type, select PLAINTIFF, DEFENDANT, OR DEBTOR IN A CASE.

The screenshot shows a web form with a dropdown menu for "User Type". The dropdown is open, displaying a list of options: FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, FEDERAL JUDICIARY, STATE OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT,  Individual Accounts  (separated by a line), INDIVIDUAL, STUDENT, PLAINTIFF, DEFENDANT, OR DEBTOR IN A CASE, and ATTORNEY. A red arrow points to the "PLAINTIFF, DEFENDANT, OR DEBTOR IN A CASE" option. Below the dropdown are "Next", "Reset", and "Cancel" buttons. To the left of the dropdown, there is a checkbox labeled "Check here if this account is for an attorney" and a "User Verification" field.

2. When your PACER registration is complete, the following message will display. Click the [Continue] button to request an e-filer account with the Fifth Circuit. Skip to section C.

Electronic Case Filing (ECF) is mandatory in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals for all counsel. In order to be approved for electronic filing, attorneys are required to be an active member of the 5th Circuit bar, to register as a "Filing User" in accordance with 5th Cir. R. 25.2.3, and to comply with the court's ECF rules and standards.

4. On the final screen, review the Non-Attorney E-Filing Terms and Conditions. Click to acknowledge. When done, click [Submit]. A notice will be sent to the Fifth Circuit for review and approval. You will be notified by email when the court completes its review.

E-Filing Terms of Use

NON-ATTORNEY E-FILING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- I agree that a filing or submission made with my judiciary e-filing login and password constitutes my signature for all purposes, including the Federal Rules of Procedure and the local rules of the court(s) where I am filing, and shall have the same force and effect as if I had affixed my signature on a paper document being filed or submitted.
- I agree to adhere to the local rules, orders, policies, and procedures governing electronic filing for the court(s) where I have filing privileges. I understand that a non-attorney's filing privileges may be limited to specified transactions, depending on the court.
- I must pay any fees incurred for transactions made in CMECF in accordance with applicable statutes and fee schedules.
- I agree to protect the security of my password.
- I will change my password through my judiciary e-filing account if I suspect it has been compromised and immediately notify the affected court(s). I am aware that I may be sanctioned for failure to comply with this provision.
- I agree to maintain my contact information, including email address, mailing address, telephone number(s), and facsimile number. All changes will be made through my judiciary e-filing account.
- I agree to comply with the Federal Rules of Procedure regarding privacy and redaction and will redact the following personal data identifiers from all documents filed with the court(s) whether filed electronically or in paper, unless otherwise ordered by the court(s): social security numbers and taxpayer identification numbers (the last four digits may be used); birth dates (year of birth may be used); minors' names (initials may be used); and financial account numbers (the last four digits may be used, except redaction does not apply to financial account numbers identifying property allegedly subject to forfeiture in a forfeiture proceeding). Filers, and not the court, are solely responsible for redacting pleadings. See Fed. R. App. P. 25\(a\)\(5\); Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2; Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1; and Fed. R. Bankr. P.

Your e-file registration will be processed by the selected court. You will receive an email notification from the selected court regarding the status of your admissions and registration as well as any additional information or instructions at the email address provided.

Note: We protect the security of your information during transmission using Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) software, which encrypts information you submit.

OPTION #2 - FILE DOCUMENTS ELECTRONICALLY AND RECEIVE COPIES OF FILINGS, COURT NOTICES, AND COURT ORDERS ELECTRONICALLY.

If you want to file documents electronically in your case, you must first file a motion with the court and the court must grant your request.

To apply:

1. You must file a motion asking the court to grant you permission to file documents electronically in your case.

Before you file a motion, you are required to review our documentation on “How To” file documents electronically and tell us that you have done so in your motion. The “How To” documentation is available at: <http://www.ca5.uscourts.gov/electronic-case-filing/electronic-case-filing/ecf-information-page> under the section heading ‘NextGen References’.

2. If the court grants your motion, follow the steps above in OPTION #1 to create a PACER account and submit a request to the Fifth Circuit for an e-filing account, if you have not already done so.

If you have already completed the steps in OPTION #1, no further action is needed. You may log in and file with this court in the approved case.

3. If the court denies your motion to file documents electronically, you may still apply to receive notification of filings and orders by email as detailed in OPTION #1 if you have not already done so.
