No. 20-11250

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff—Appellee,

versus

LOUI A. HAMDOONI,

Defendant—Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 4:20-CR-183

Before WIENER, GRAVES, and HO, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Loui Hamdooni pleaded guilty to one count of bank robbery, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(a). He brought this appeal to challenge a condition of his supervised release.

According to the written judgment, he must report to the probation office in the district “to which he is released.” Hamdooni contends that this provision conflicts with the oral pronouncement, which requires him to report to the probation office in the district “where he is authorized to reside.”

Hamdooni contends that the written judgment and oral pronouncement conflict, to the extent that they require him to report to probation offices in two different districts—the district in which he is incarcerated and the district in which he is authorized to reside. But we see no conflict. The district “to which” Hamdooni is released is the very district where he is “authorized to reside.”

We accordingly affirm.
