

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 93-2901

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

versus

RUDOLPH M. McCABE and RICHARD LARRY CRUMP,

Defendants-Appellants.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
(CR-H-93-177-02)

(February 14, 1995)

Before VAN GRAAFEILAND,* JOLLY, and WIENER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

After our review of the briefs, the record, and the arguments made in this case, we conclude that the district court committed no reversible error in ordering restitution with respect to appellant McCabe, which is the only issue he appeals; and, that in view of *United States Court of Appeals, Second Circuit Judge sitting by designation.

Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

the overwhelming evidence of guilt of the appellant Crump that was presented at trial, we are convinced that there is no basis for the reversal of his conviction. Consequently, the district court's judgment with respect to each defendant-appellant, in all particulars, is
